What does AIA Maryland do for me?

In January 2019, AIA Maryland embarked on developing a new strategic plan to focus the Chapter’s efforts over the next three years and beyond.

See more about this at aiamd.org under the tab Voice, Value & Viability.

The Voice of Architecture
Advocate for the built environment; powerfully defend the profession in the communities of Maryland.

- Represent the interests of architects in the State legislature
- Collaborate with the Maryland Architects PAC and aligned organizations

The Value of Design
Champion the value of design; promote and celebrate architecture throughout the State.

- Showcase design excellence
- Foster relationships with all Maryland educators

The Viability of AIA Maryland
Guide the chapter; create a sustainable model of civic engagement and leadership.

- Preserve and enhance our presence in the state capital
- Support and strengthen engagement with local chapters
